Dear valued supplier:

As you may be aware, the federal government is currently operating under a lapse in appropriations (commonly referred to as a government shutdown) that began on October 1. If you are currently supporting Oak Ridge National Laboratory through active subcontracts, please continue your work as scheduled unless directed otherwise by the Procurement Officer named in your agreement or purchase order. We will promptly communicate any updates or changes that may arise.

Thank you for your continued partnership and support of ORNL's mission.
