Tyler and Nazli,

Cooperative agreements funded through the CRP Monitoring Assessment and Evaluation (MAE) program will be allowed (but not required) to continue operation during this time of lapse in federal government spending. During this period invoices will not be processed for payment and must be held for submission when federal government fully resumes.

I will be out of the office and will not have access to email or voicemail until federal government funding has been restored. Additionally, USDA staff will be unavailable for project input or other forms of support until the shutdown ends and staff are directed to return to work. When I return to work, I will follow up with you and provide any available updates.

We appreciate your flexibility during this time.
